

In Memory of Ram Ramamurthy

Ram Ramamurthy died in August 2024

I am very much shocked to hear that Ram Ramamurthy has passed away. I pray to the Almighty for the internal peace of the departed soul of our great friend Ramamurthy. I remember our meeting in Rasulia Quaker Centre, India where I attended a meeting along with my wife, my elder son (who died), son and Marjorie Sykes, Hansi De. It reminds me the days spent with Ramamurthy.

May God rest him in peace.

Thank you for the news about Ram Ramamurthy. He encouraged me to go to India and teach so many years ago.

I am not able to attend the Cremation as I am on my way to AM in North Yorkshire.

My daughter was at Sibford School with their son.

Ram was so clear thinking and always knew what action to take to find solutions. He cared for everyone, and in my case made sure I was safe and well looked after when in India.

If my memory is correct, Ram looked after Marjorie Sykes when she was traveling from the UK to India by boat and landed in Bombay, in Madras when she became very ill and Gerrards Cross at the end of her life. He was someone who was a point of contact for all Quaker visitors to India at a time when commercial air travel did not exist and when they arrived/departed from the port of Bombay.
